

Discipline Philosophy Assessment Survey Questions

1. I believe that the most important part of a school and classroom discipline program is prevention.
2. The most important component of a preventive discipline program is developing positive student relationships.
3. Chaos outside the classroom will spill into the classroom.
4. A chaotic school environment is destructive to the school climate.
5. It takes everyone working together to create and maintain a positive discipline program.
6. School and classroom rules need to be proactively taught to students.
7. Supervision of students is everybody's responsibility.
8. Although consequences are caritcal to any school discipline program, the most important component is prevention.
9. It is critical to communicate proactively with parents about their children's behavior.
10. Students are students first and athletes second; if a student receives a consequence, there should also be a game related consequence.
11. Teachers should be empowered to deal with most disciplinary issues.
12. When giving students consequences, it is important to let them keep their dignity and treat them with respect.
13. There should be a balance between consequences and incentives or rewards.
14. When individual staff members ignore school rules, the entire discipline program is undermined.
15. I understand that developing and implementing an effective discipline program takes a gread deal of effort by everyone, but the payoff is well worth the effort.

Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
15	7		2
17	7
12	11	1
18	6
20	5
20	4
19	5
11	11	1	1
20	4
4	17	3
10	14
19	5
6	18	1
11	13
21	4

